There are no warranties which extend beyond the description herein. This warranty is in lieu of all other warranties, whether express, implied or statutory, including implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Purchaser acknowledges that it is not relying on Vital's skill or judgment to select a Tool for a particular purpose. This warranty extends only to the original Purchaser of Tools from Vital and will not extend to any subsequent purchaser of the Tools from the original Purchaser. Vital may refuse any item returned for reasons other than those covered by this Limited Warranty.
